FOREWORD

Some years ago when Miss McClung was in charge of the Genealogical Department of the Denver Public Library, she began receiving inquiries for information regarding the Kit Carson family. This made it necessary for her to get together everything that could be found in print in libraries of Denver which comprised finally just four closely typed pages.

In 1956, recognizing the growing interest in Carson, Miss McClung was asked by the Colorado Genealogical Society if she would give them this material for publication in their magazine, The Colorado Genealogist. Miss McClung was reluctant to do so, feeling that there was great need of correction and additions. The Society then asked her to go ahead and find all she could to see if something worth while could be evolved.

Through the kindness of Dr. Nolie Mumey of Denver, a prominent student of things western, she was put in touch with Mr. John J. McCurdy of Lincoln, Kansas, well known for his interest in Carson and his activities in behalf of any Carson project. Mr. McCurdy loaned his valuable scrapbooks from which many items of value were gleaned. He put Miss McClung in touch with Mrs. Bernice Blackwelder of Arlington, Virginia, who had done research for him for years. Mrs. Blackwelder is also a Carson admirer, knows many of the members of the family and has collected much family data, all of which she generously turned over. Her researches have covered all library and archive facilities in Washington, D.C.

Contact was also made with Major Jack K. Boyer who is in charge of the Kit Carson House and Museum in Taos, New Mexico, and a close cooperation between the Museum and Miss McClung was begun.

In the spring of 1957 the compiler decided to travel in search of material, having exhausted the sources in Denver. In Santa Fe, New Mexico; in Salt Lake City, Utah; and in the leading libraries of the Pacific Coast, notably the Los Angeles Public Library; the Public Library of San Francisco, the San Francisco Historical Society Library, the library of the Society of California Pioneers, the Bancroft Library in Berkeley, California; and the Portland Public Library, an exhaustive search was carried on.

In San Francisco a grandson of Kit Carson was visited, Mr. Charles T. Wood and his wife, and their family materials opened for use. Through

Mr. Wood, Miss McClung met Mr. Ralph Moody who kindly went over the sections of the manuscript which embodied the greatest amount of research for purposes of identification.

Back in Denver, there was advice to get in touch with Mr. Lester F. Phillis of McPherson, Kansas, who had worked for years on his own Carson family, which seems to be closely related to that of the famous "Kit." He immediately sent all of his records to Denver and from these was evolved the Line of Samuel. Mrs. Blackwelder had obtained a copy of a new book "Carson Family Records" by Mr. F. T. Carson, which she sent to Denver. In this were found portions that fitted into the Samuel line and permission was kindly given by the author to copy these portions.

Through the State Historical Society in Santa Fe contact was made with Mr. Warren L. Boggs of California, who has collected a great mass of Boggs data. He has cooperated generously.

Large numbers of letters and forms were sent out to libraries, historical societies and individuals who might possibly be helpful in the states of Missouri, Colorado, New Mexico and the whole Pacific Coast, many of which were never answered. Many persons who might conceivably wish to assist because of membership in the family were completely uncooperative, while others, with no personal involvement at all, have given generous help. Among these are Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Nelson, Mrs. Leora H. Werner, Mrs. Venita R. McPherson, Mr. C. W. Hurd, Mrs. Frances Carson Hubert, Mrs. Edna Perry Deckler, Mr. Jesse R. Nelson, Florence Carson Bryan, Mrs. Nelia Corbin Baldridge, Mrs. Josephine Carson Beach, Mr. F. L. Boggs, Mrs. Cress Taylor, Mr. F. W. Carson, Mr. Frank Wood, Bertha Carson Amick, Mr. Kit Carson, Mrs. Gertrude Alpers, Mrs. M. S. McGuinn, and Mrs. Merlyn Houck.

Bernice Fitzsimmons Hathaway
Editor, Colorado Genealogist.

The designation "Kit" with or without Roman numerals seems to have been used at will in family records regardless of generation or close relationship to the famous "Kit" Carson, and has been copied as given to the compiler.

It was decided not to use footnotes, but to give all such material comprising mostly differences in dates, in the regular place, together with sources, so that all details belonging to any one name might be together.

For the sake of brevity in indicating sources frequently used, certain abbreviations were used, ie.:

BB	Bernice Blackwelder	JKB	J. K. Boyer
Fam.	Family Record	LFP	Lester F. Phillis
FTC	F. T. Carson

Other abbreviations:

ae	age	dinf.	died in infancy
App.	Appendix	dsp.	died without issue
bap.	baptized	dunm.	died unmarried
ca	about	k.	killed
dec.	deceased	twp.	township

A great debt is due to Mr. Ralph E. Caughron who so skillfully made the first good typescript.

Sincere thanks are extended to Miss Adelaide French, Mrs. Charles E. Hathaway, Mrs. C. P. McAllister, and Mr. Ewing Stiffler, who assisted in the arduous task of indexing and proof reading..

THE CARSON FAMILY

(From C. T. Wood)

WILLIAM CARSON (17-17). Emigrated from Scotland or northern part of Ireland during the first part of the eighteenth century to Pennsylvania. Thence moving southward by impulse, which transfused into the Carolinas and Tennessee. He eventually laid claim to 692 acres of land on both sides of Third Creek in Loray District of western Iredell County, North Carolina. The Carson grant to this tract was from Lord Granville and dated December 1, 1761. He is recorded as a farmer. Married Eleanor McDuff (McDorf) and after imprudent drinking from a cold spring on a hot day, he died, before the Revolutionary War. Their children are:

1 Robert Carson. Born 1758, died 1837. New Washington Crawford County, Ohio. Was a soldier in North Carolina Troops--Revolutionary War, 1776. Emigrated into Kentucky, thence Virginia, thence Ohio. Part of his family is a son:
   1 Samuel Carson. Born 1789, died 1867, New Washington Crawford County, Ohio. Issue:
      1 Robert Carson, Jackson, Annie, Harrison, George, Margaret, Sarah, Hannah, Eliza, Samuel and Tarlington Carson, who was born 1837, died 1914, New Washington Crawford County, Ohio and was a soldier in Civil War. (His father, likewise, was in the War of 1812.) His family is:
         1 John Carson, Violet, Francis, Wilbur, Ulysses, Estella and Mable, who married Edward C. Neis of 150 Ridge Avenue, Dayton, Ohio.
2 Lindsey Carson. Died 1818. Later of South Carolina, Kentucky and Missouri.
3 Andrew Carson, who lived on Hunting Creek, Iredell County, North Carolina. A Captain under Colonel Marion (The Swamp Fox) during the Revolutionary War. Married Temperence Young. They are buried in the Young-Huston family plot, Iredell County, North Carolina. Their children are:
   1 Washington Carson, 2 Alfred Carson, 3 Robert Carson, 4 daughter, name unknown.

4 Eleanor Carson

5 Sarah Carson

6 Alexander Carson, who emigrated to Mississippi and of his family a son, Alexander Carson, who is mentioned as a trapper with Wilson Hunt party in the upper Missouri River. Also is mentioned with a party of Astorians during 1811.

LINDSEY CARSON (17 -1818). Second son of William Carson of Iredell, North Carolina, by his wife Eleanor McDuff. Born in North Carolina on a farm on Third Creek, Loray District, about 1761. His exploits in the Revolutionary War are matters of conjecture, but so sturdy an Indian fighter must have done good service. After the war he removed to South Carolina and married Miss Bradley and later moved to Madison County, Kentucky and in the spring of 1811, with his family, came west by ox team and wagon to the New Boone's District of Louisiana which is now Missouri and settled in Howard County along the Missouri River. The name of Lindsey Carson appears on the rolls of old Fort Hemstead, likewise the annuals of old Fort Cooper claim him. He was a large man about six foot tall. He and his third son, Moses, were enrolled in the home guard during the War of 1812. In 1814, the fingers of his left hand were mangled by a bullet during an Indian skirmish. In September 1818 he died by the fall of a limb from a burned tree while clearing timber near his cabin. He left a rifle of large bore, of which the stock, like his fingers, was smashed by enemies' bullets. His epitaph is written (A ZEALOUS SOLDIER BUT A MAN OF PEACE). Their children are:

1 William Carson. Born 1786, died ---. See p. 4

2 Sarah Carson. Born 1788. Married Peyton and lived to an advanced age.

Green County, Virginia, and had the following children:

In 1841 moved to California. He was with his father's family when they came to Howard County, Missouri in 1811. At the age of nine he lost his father and later on, the mother remarried. He was placed out to learn the saddlery trade and not liking this and as the lure of farther west ran true in his blood, ran away during 1826, which became the start of his famous career. His first marriage was to an Arapahoe maiden, by whom he had a daughter, Adaline Carson, who married Lewis or Louis Simmons and lived in California, 1853 and 1854. LINE OF WILLIAM CARSON, ANCESTOR OF "KIT"

CARSON, FAMOUS FRONTIERSMAN

The Carson family has the familiar legend of three brothers who came to America. They are said by some to have been William, Moses and Andrew. Others claim that they were William, Moses and Samuel. Mr. F. T. Carson believes that there were four: William and James of Carolina and John and Samuel of Pennsylvania.

As William was the ancestor of Kit Carson, we give that line first. Having good records of the line of Samuel, we give that next. Our record of Moses is too brief and inadequate to have a place in this book. The same is to be said of the record of Andrew. We have nothing on James of Carolina or John of Pennsylvania.

The William Carson Line records were originally based on Sabin's "Kit Carson Days", 1935 edition. A large part of the records of descendants was contributed by Bernice Blackwelder of Alexandria, Virginia, who has engaged in research on the family for many years and visited members of the family from time to time. Major Jack K. Boyer of the Kit Carson House and Museum at Taos, New Mexico has sent everything that he has been able to get together, and Lester F. Phillis of McPherson, Kansas, compiler of the Samuel Line section, has sent many dates. Mr. John J. McCurdy of Lincoln, Kansas, well known as a Carson enthusiast, has loaned us all of his invaluable scrap books. Mr. Charles T. Wood of San Francisco, grandson of Kit Carson, has helped with the Wood family. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of Las Animas, Colorado, have given generous assistance. Many brief items have come from other sources, usually indicated in the text.

The various references to "Boone's Lick", "Boonesboro" and Boonville being a bit confusing, the following explanation may be welcome.

"Boone's Lick is a salt spring where Daniel Boone and his sons boiled the water to make salt. It is located in Howard County, Missouri, about seven or eight miles west of the present city of New Franklin. I doubt whether it was ever more than a salt manufacturing plant; now it is only part of a farm pasture. It is located in a small valley about a half-mile before the valley opens out into the Missouri bottom land. Boonesboro is an inland town or village (now well along in decay) which is situated about a mile and a half further back in the river hills north of the salt spring and on the upland level. These two places are on the north side of the Missouri River.

The city of Boonville is a thriving modern city of some 8,000 population, and is situated immediately on the south bank of the Missouri River directly across from New Franklin." (F.L. Boggs)

Another informant says that when records speak of persons going to Boone's Lick, it meant that they went to the vicinity of these salt works. Boonesboro was named for Daniel Boone. Achilles Callaway built the first house and Hampton Carson was the first blacksmith. Carsons and Callaways intermarried. (Also spelled Calloway)

WILLIAM[1] CARSON, said to have been born ca. 1720 in northern Ireland of Scottish extraction. Came to America bet. 1738-1748. Settled first in Cumberland County, later called Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, moving finally to the section of Rowan County, North Carolina now called Iredell County. A letter in the files of the Kentucky Historical Society says he settled in Rowan County, North Carolina in 1746. On December 21, 1761, William Carson received from the Earl of Granville a land grant of 692 acres on both sides of Third Creek in the vicinity of the town of Loray, previously known as Morrison's Mill, Concord Church, Fancy Hill and Iredell Station, Rowan County. (Said to be 6 miles from present town of Statesville.) "The land probably ran much more, for the surveyors, chain bearers and crowd that generally witness such runnings were all against 'My Lord' who resided across the water."

William donated the land for the Concord Presbyterian Church but before the church was finished, he suffered a stroke one hot day, brought on, it is said, by imprudently drinking cold water from the church well. As the burial plot was as yet unmarked, William Carson was buried in Morrison's Graveyard, half a mile from the Concord Church. The date was between 1761-1776. The date is also given as 1775/6. (Above compiled from data furnished by BB and Marion Estergren.) Wm. named his "cuzin" Robt. Carson as executor of his will, made in 1759. (FTC)

William married Eleanor (Ailsa or Ailsey) McDuff (also given as McDuffie and McDorf) she b. in Rowan County of Scottish immigrant parents, -- McDuff and Eleanor Gordon. (Mrs. McDuff married second a Vance.)

After William's death, Eleanor McDuff Carson married a widower, John Scroggs, Sr., whose son, John, Jr. married Eleanor's daughter, Sarah Carson. John Scroggs Sr. had built the second mill in Iredell County, called Kestler's Mill. He died in 1792 "from the effects of lifting heavy sacks of grain". Eleanor Carson Scroggs is buried in the graveyard on the Scroggs plantation, three miles south of Statesville, North Carolina, the grave marked by a headboard inscribed: E.S. d. 1814. (From B.B.)

Children of William Carson by Eleanor McDuff:

I Lindsey^{2}Carson b. 1754 see p. 13
II Andrew^{2}Carson b. 1756 see p. 39
III Robert^{2}Carson b. 1759 see p. 49
IV Sarah^{2}Carson b. 1752 or 1762 see p. 58
V Eleanor^{2}Carson b. 1767 see p. 60
VI Alexander^{2}Carson see p. 61

Of the various listings given, this seems the most logical. Sabin is not certain of Alexander. Rietz omits him.

The sons of William Carson were bound out after their father's death. Revolutionary War records show that Lindsey, Andrew and Robert served as Minute Men under Colonel Wade Hampton, who astonished Cornwallis "by their romantic partisan warfare, full of romantic midnight marches, sudden surprises and desperate hand-to-hand combats."

I Lindsey^{2}Carson (Sabin uses this spelling. B.B. says army records, North Carolina State Records, tax and census records use Lindsey. Bancroft Library and Boone Genealogy use Lindsay. Mrs. McGuinn says he was Walter Lindsay, as does Mrs. Merlyn Houck) born 8-1-1754 Rowan County, North Carolina (Mrs. McGuinn) b. ca 1761 (Sabin) others give 1755 and 1760. See App. #4.

"Under the law of primogeniture, Lindsey inherited his father's lands. Two deeds dated June 1, 1786 and November 22, 1786, in the name of Lindsey Carson are on record at Rowan County courthouse, Salisbury, North Carolina. A stipulated sum was to be paid from time to time to His Lordship's agent in Salisbury, but the war perfected title without further payment.

"Lindsey and Robert Carson moved to Madison Co. Ky. between 1790 and 1792. Their names do not appear on 1790 census but both are listed on property tax lists of 1792 in Kentucky and 1800 census, Lindsey in Madison Co. and Robert in Shelby County." (BB)

Lindsey was raised and educated by Colonel Hale Talbot who later went west and rode the Santa Fe Trail (Bryan-History of Pioneer Families of Missouri.) Served in Revolutionary War.

"Record of Lindsey Carson: Commencement of Service Apr. 10, 1781; Time of Service: 10 mos. Pay and bounty in Negroes: 1 grown; Rec'd. none. Balance due: 1 grown. Sum L 86.10.8 (list indents) issued 1st Oct. 1784 to Mr. Lindsey Carson, pr. in Reid's troop, Wade Hampton Reg., Sumter's Brigade. 94 pounds sterling for service in that troop together with interest from 1 April 1782 to date thereof: Agreeable to resolution of Gen. Assemb.of 11 March last. L 86.10.8. Principal L 94.00. L 6.11.7 (Pay roll of Lt. Dragoons)" (BB)

"A zealous patriot, Lindsey and his older sons joined the militia for frontier duty during War of 1812, while his family lived in Ft. Cooper." (BB)

The Carsons moved to Boone's Lick in Howard County, Missouri, in 1811. (History of Howard County, Missouri) This place no longer appears in the atlases, having been taken by the river. Lindsey was killed July 1818, struck by a falling limb while fighting a forest fire. (BB)

Lindsey m. first in South Carolina after Revolutionary War a Miss Bradley (BB says Lucy) (Could she have been daughter of a Moses Bradley who lived in that section? Rietz believes she was). They lived on Hunting Creek, in Iredell County, South Carolina. Lucy died 1793/4/5 Madison County, Kentucky. (Sabin v.1 p.2) d.4-5-1794 (B.B.) m. 2nd Rebecca Robinson b.9-16-1778, m.2-11-1778 (Fam.Rec.1797) (Marriage Records of Madison County, Kentucky, p.48 in Register, Kentucky Historical Society v.39 p.2, another record on p.336 of v.37 gives 1-11-1796) She daughter of James Robinson.

The Kit Carson House Museum in Taos, New Mexico has the marriage bond for $50 which Lindsey Carson posted to Rebecca's father in Madison County ca 1796. (McCurdy Scrap books). The father's consent was filed at Madison County Courthouse 2-11-1796. (B.B.)

In the certificate of Kit's Baptism into the Catholic Church at Taos (before his marriage to a Spanish woman) his mother's name is given as "Roberson". This form frequently appears. Some have also called her "Susan". She was reputedly a sister of Jane Robinson McMullin who married Robert Carson, Lindsey's brother. After Lindsey died Rebecca married 2nd 10-12-1821, Joseph Martin. (History of Howard and Cooper Counties, Missouri) and (DAR records of Howard County, Missouri)

Nancy Martin bequeathed $50 to son Joseph, one of six children, 3-5-1823, being weak in body but perfect in mind and memory. (Will box #1, DAR Records of Howard County, Missouri, B.B.)

Missouri Census, Howard County 1830 gives:

Joseph Martin 50/60 wife 50/60 (Rebecca Carson Martin b.1778 ae 52)
1 son 5/10
2 sons 10/15
1 son 20/30

All the sons of Lindsey Carson, at one time or another, were engaged in the commerce of the Santa Fe Trail. William, who moved his family to Missouri in 1816, was one of the early traders making several trips with pack animals, having only a pocket compass to guide him.

Andrew and Robert were members of the expedition sent to survey the trail from Boone's Lick to Santa Fe (1825) under the command of George H. Sibley, who later founded Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Missouri. Sibley mentions in his journal that Andrew Carson was stunned by lightning that struck his tent. Payroll of November 28 lists A. and R Carson as two hands paid. Ceran St. Vrain, trader of Taos, specified that Andrew Carson was hired by him (1831) as a teamster for 50¢ per day. Robert was killed by bushwhackers near his home in Missouri. (BB)

"At Fort Kincaid, Missouri, War of 1812, Lindsay Carson, Kit, Moses and Andrew." (Houck-History of Missouri v. 3 p. 137) Lindsey and his brothers, Moses and Andrew may have been there, but Kit was only 3 years old.

There was a Moses Bradley in the area). Reported "dead by 1880" (PD 9:8 Bancroft Library). A Moses Carson of Madison County, Kentucky m. Elizabeth Dunwiddie on 8-19-1813 or 9-28-1813 (both

Moses Bradley,[3] the only son of Lindsey[2] who did not marry, joined the Ashley-Henry Company (1822) to explore the Missouri River to its source. He was an expert trapper and Mountain Man. To California with Ewing Young's expedition (1831) and possibly with Fremont's III; foreman of the Fitch Ranch at Sotoyome, California, during the Bear Flag uprising. Described as rough and weather-beaten, 60 years old, six feet tall, weighing 200, with one eye and minus several fingers. (BB) (Pioneer Register of California v.II, Bancroft Library) He was, however, past 40 then.

After a period spent in the Los Angeles district, in 1845 he moved on to the Russian River north of San Francisco Bay, where at future Healdsburg he was overseer upon the great land grant of Captain Henry Delano Fitch. He played a part in the Bear Flag insurrection of 1846 and he and Kit undoubtedly met again at that time. He filed a claim upon the government for $653, due for horses and munitions sold to Fremont for use by the California Batt. (Sen. Rep. 242, 36th Congress)

He returned to New Mexico evidently in 1856; left in California a nephew Moses Carson Briggs (son of his sister Nancy Carson Briggs) and his youngest half-brother Lindsey, who in 1849 (otherwise stated as 1847 and 1848) also had come into the Russian River Valley.
He apparently is reported as "Mike", an older brother of Kit Carson, peacefully living in Tucson, Arizona in 1858. (Diary of Phocian Way, S.W. Hist. Quar. v.36 No. 3) He died in El Paso, Texas, January 1, 1868, and as "Brother Moses Carson, 76 years, date of initiation unknown" (Records of El Paso Lodge No. 130, A.F. & A.M.); was buried by the Masons in their cemetery there, January 2 . . . Sabin says rode the Santa Fe Trail to California 1851.
Went to California 1849/50 (Missouri Hist. Rev. v.6 p.87-9)
"William Boggs relates that Bob or Robert Carson (older than Kit) came to California some time in the 50's, perhaps about 1851, reaching Sonoma on foot, accompanied by a nephew named Moses Briggs (a son of Nancy Carson, Kit's sister.) 'Old Bob'Carson was a dissipated old man and was intoxicated when he arrived on foot in Sonoma during the rainy season, without any means whatever, hunting his way to his brother Lindsey Carson, who lived some 40 miles north of Sonoma. The writer, seeing he was in a destitute condition, gave the nephew five dollars and put them on the way to the brother's home."

f Infant son never named.

Fifteenth child of Lindsey[2]Carson, wife Rebecca Robinson

O Lindsey[3]Carson II, b. 9-11-1818 (LFP) six weeks after his father's death. Lindsey rode the Santa Fe Trail. (Sabin) Went to Sonoma, California 1845, settled on Russian River 1847. (v. 1 p. 50 Quar. Calif. Hist. Soc.)

In 1861 moved to San Antonio, Texas and joined Confederate Army. Returned to California by way of Mexico, settled on a large dairy ranch in Lake County which he sold (1879) and moved to Oregon. After six months returned to California where he operated a large stock ranch for three years; then sold out and went to Lampasas, Texas, where he died two years later. His family returned to California. John Martin, step-brother of Lindsey, lived many years with the family and died about 1883 in California. (From Lindsey's youngest daughter, Louise Carson Puett, Findley, California 1930)

Lindsey m. 1850 Maria Theresa Gordon Williams, said to have been a widow of Scottish ancestry who had come to California from Missouri with the ill-fated Donner Party, but her name appears in none of the lists of members of the party. She had a son, John S. Williams, whom Lindsey reared. (LFP calls her Maria Louisa Gordon)

James, T. (Theresa?) Carson, Lindsey, Mariah L. and Matilda appear on index to 1852 Census of Sierra, Siskiyou, Solano, Sutter, Trinity and Tulare Counties, California. v. 10 p. 177. Lindsey was on Russian River August 1, 1854, according to a letter he wrote to Kit on that date. Had a farm, mentions wife, the twins, Benny and Mary Ellen. He writes "tell Chapete (pet name for Carson's wife) that Maria wants to see her." d. 1893/5 Lampasas, Texas.

II Andrew[2]Carson, b. 3-1-1756, d. 1-29-1841 (dates BB)Hunting Creek, Iredell County, North Carolina.

Andrew Carson, second son of William and Eleanor McDuff Carson, was bound out to Christopher Houston (1744-1837), the man for whom Christopher "Kit" Carson was named. Andrew entered service at the age of 17 as a scout for General Francis Marion "The Swamp Fox." He came near losing his life in "The Snow Campaign," served against the Cherokee Indians, conveyed messages between General Marion and General Greene, and when Cornwallis arrived in North Carolina, fought at the battle of Cowpens. Previous to the battle of Shallow-ford, informed of marching Tories, mounted horse to ride 62 miles to headquarters of General Davidson. Arrived at sunrise, was given command of 52 men, maneuvered two weeks, came upon and routed main body at Shallowford, on the Yadkin... Served as ranger and commanded a company of volunteers under Colonel Wade Hampton until the end of the war. (From War Records, Bureau of Pensions). Andrew was with Baron De Kalb who died from 11 wounds and assisted in carrying him from the field.

Is described as a very large man with a semi-Roman nose and pleasant, resolute eyes. Andrew Carson became a successful landowner on the Catawba in Rowan County, North Carolina, the place, marked by an oak six feet in diameter (1910), which Captain Carson bent down and tapped with his pocket knife. His will, dated April 18, 1836, mentions nine slaves to be left to his children and grandchildren with the clause: "Should I die at crop time, it is my will and desire that there be no division of my field and house hands or of property necessary to the crop till the crop has been made and housed." Tombstone inscription: "Capt. Andrew Carson b. 1 March 1756, d. 29 January 1841. (From BB)

KIT CARSON AND FAMILY

Sketch by Bernice Blackwelder

Probably the most famous to bear the Carson name was Christopher (Kit), son of Lindsey and Rebecca Robinson Carson, born December 24, 1809, in Madison County, Kentucky. At sixteen, Kit ran away from a tedious job as a saddler's apprentice in the border town of Franklin, Missouri to join a wagon train on the Santa Fe Trail. Though slightly built and unassuming, he won acclaim as one of the great mountain men and Indian fighters, distinguished for his modesty and integrity as well as his courage and resourcefulness. After his marriage to the beautiful and aristocratic Senorita Josefa Jaramillo, he planned to take up ranching but instead accepted an appointment as guide for John Charles Fremont's three overland expeditions (1842-1847). During the Conquest of California, he fought with outstanding bravery at San Pascual and Los Angeles and carried important dispatches to and from Washington in the first Overland Mail. The first news of the discovery of gold in California was brought east in his saddlebags.

After retiring to his successful ranch in the Cimarron Valley, Kit was appointed Indian Agent for the Utes and Pueblos by President Franklin Pierce, a position he held for seven years with headquarters at his home in Taos, New Mexico. During the Civil War he was brevetted Brigadier General of the New Mexico Volunteers for gallantry in action at the Battle of Val Verde and after the war was in command of Fort Garland in Colorado. During forty years of unequalled service, General Carson won the affection and respect of the Indians as well as the admiration and esteem of the leading men of his time in this country and abroad.

He died at Fort Lyon, Colorado, May 23, 1868 from the effects of an injury sustained in a fall from his horse while guiding a party in the San Juan Mountains several years before. His wife, Josefa, who had died the preceding month giving birth to their seventh child, Josefita, was buried beside him in the little cemetery at Taos, which recently has been dedicated as part of the Kit Carson Memorial Park by the state of New Mexico. Carson City, Nevada; Kit Carson, Colorado; Carson River; Carson Lake; Carson Pass;

Carson National Forest and Camp Carson, Colorado are some of the places named for the man who has been called the greatest of all Westerners.

K-Christopher Houston[3]Carson, known to history as "Kit" Carson, b. 12-24-1809 (Sabin v. 1 p. 6) b. 12-25-1809 (John S. Hough). Sabin says he was named for Christopher Houston (v.1 p. 3). Another account says he was born while parents were visiting Andrew Houston of Iredell, North Carolina and that the child was named for him. Another account says "Kit was named for Colonel Hale Talbot's eldest son. The Colonel had reared and educated Lindsey." (p. 347 Bryan - Pioneer Families of Missouri) Sabin says the parents were visiting Andrew Carson.

A group of interested persons believe they have established the birthplace at the corner of Tate's Creek and Goggin's Lane, two miles N.W. of Richmond, Madison County,Kentucky, on strength of Lindsey's ownership of the land. (Newspaper clipping which may have been Pueblo Star Journal and Sun Chieftain8-7-1952, McCurdy Scrap Book.)

Carson was known to the Indians as Vih-hiu-nis or "Little Chief." (Estergren and Grinnell)

Carson d. 5-23-1868 (Sabin) at Fort Lyon, Colorado. (Rocky Mountain News 5-27-1868, p. 4 c3) d. 5-23-1868 ae 59 years. (Tombstone at Taos.) Both Carson and his wife were buried where they died and the bodies were later removed to the cemetery at Taos, New Mexico where Carson had been Indian Agent.

Carson is said to have been unable to write. (Sabin v. 2 p. 769) "Carson could not read nor write until late in life. . ." Captain Smith H. Simpson of Taos was his secretary 1866-1868. His signature "C. Carson" was always clear and firm.

But F. Tom Carson says in Carson Family History, p. 34 on: "He attended school and is said to have had a fairly good common school education for his time, wrote a good hand, and spelled acceptedly. There were many interruptions and conflicting demands that interfered with schooling...His sister Mary (Mrs. Rubey) has come to his defense, however, with the declaration that "Kit" was a smart little fellow at his books, and Father meant to make a lawyer out of him, but soon after we moved out of the fort and were getting along pretty well, Father was accidentally killed..."

CAREER:

Joined wagon train to New Mexico 1826. (BB) (Amer. Ency. v. 5 p. 675)

This outline of the career of Kit Carson is a composite from various sources, and has been checked with Encyclopedia Americana, Dictionary of American Biography, Sabin, Kit Carson Days, 1935 ed.
Carson's marriages:
Carson m. 1st ca 1836 "Waa-nibe," "Singing Wind" or "Grass Singing," daughter of a North Arapahoe Indian named Niekahochithinaahniet, which means "Running in a Circle." He was the Keeper of the Sacred Arrows. The mother was Atsena (Vestal in Adobe Walls, p. 126 says she was a Gros Ventres). It is said that Carson called this first wife "Alice." Blanche Grant says Carson m. 1st probably ca 1838 at Bent's Fort (p. 52). Various dates are given for this wife's death. Sabin gives 1838/9 v. 1 p. 311)
There was a child of this marriage generally known as Adaline, although Estergren in "The Real Kit Carson" says she was Adelaide. Bernice Blackwelder insists that the proper spelling is "Adaline." She was called "Prairie Flower" in the Indian manner. There is no record of her birth but she was variously said to be 4 years old in 1842, or 12 years old in 1848. After her mother's death Carson took her to his people in Missouri. One account says she lived with Mrs. Leander Amick. Another (BB) says she lived with Mary Ann Carson Rubey and attended the Howard-Payne Female Seminary at Fayette, Missouri. Adaline went back to Taos in 1852. There are endless stories of the remainder of her short life which we shall try to clarify. See App. #15 Sabin says, v. 2 p. 632: "Sometime in 1852 the year after she came out with him (her father) she was married to Louis Simmons, and thereupon went with Louis to California. It is said he was an army officer and that the marriage occurred in Taos." Sabin again (v. 2 p. 635) "Kit Carson evidently (by an allusion in a letter the next year from Lindsey) saw Adaline and her husband Louis Simmons" (1853)

A letter from brother Lindsey to Kit dated 8-1-1854 says: "I have not heard anything of Lewis Simmons and Adaline for some time, but the last I heard from them they were well." (Bancroft Library)
Sabin, v. 2 p. 954, note 467: "The marriage register at Taos parish apparently does not record the marriage of Adaline and Simmons. No Louis Simmons or man of similar name of that period is listed in Heitman's Historical Register and Dictionary of the U.S. Army, 1789-1902. Washington 1902. There was a Louey Simmons or Simonds, a trader well known on the Santa Fe Trail. Adaline and Simmons were certainly in California together in 1853-55. In 1859 Adaline arrived at the new Mono Diggings near Mono Lake, eastern central California, with one George Stilts and a Wilson family. As Adaline Carson Stilts, "Prairie Flower", she died there about 1860. In 1869 Captain James Hobbs was shown her grave on the shore of the lake and directed that it be fenced. (Wild Life in the Far West, pp. 447-8). A press notice of July 26, 1930, states that on Mark Twain Day, August 9, a monument upon the grave would be unveiled. The grave is said to be on the west shore of the lake, but there appears to be no record of the unveiling or of any monument." See App. #6 and #16
Lavender mentions a "Louis Simonds" as being at Bent's Fort in 1846. Another account says his full name was Luther W. Simonds and that he 35 years old at time of supposed marriage.
In "Utah Mountain Man" by Charles Kelly in Desert Magazine for May 1948, p. 11, Louis Simmons is identified at Kit Carson's son-in-law. (For further material on Adaline see App. #6.)
Carson m. 2nd ca 1840 "Making Out Road" a South Cheyenne Indian woman of a different nature from the first wife. Her baby died and she left Carson by the winter of 1841/2.
Carson has often been said to have married a woman of the Beaubien family. That is untrue.

Carson m. 3rd at Taos, New Mexico, 2-6-1843, Maria Josefa Jaramilla, b. 3-19-1828, daughter of Francisco Jaramilla(o) and Maria (A) Polonia Vigil. She was a sister of the wife of Charles Bent. Officiating priest D. Antonio Jose Martinez. Witnesses: George Bent (bro. of Charles and William) and Maria de la Cruz Padilla. (McCurdy Scrap Book)
Maria Josefa d. near La Junta, Colorado and was first buried there. Various dates are given for her death but the tombstone at Taos says: "Josephine, wife of Kit Carson, b. March 19, 1828, died April 23, 1868."
When Thomas O. Boggs gave an accounting of his stewardship of the Carson children's inheritance sometime after 1871, he listed the Carson children as follows:

Julian Carson	b. 10-1-1852
Teresina	b. 6-23-1855, m. D. Allen 1871
Christobal	b. 6-13-1858
Charles	b. 8-2-1861
Rebecca	b. 4-13-1864
Estefanita	b. 12-23-1866
Josafita	b. 4-13-1868

(From facsimile in McCurdy Scrap Book)
Sabin (v. 2 p. 800) says Aloys Scheurich was godfather to Carson's children.

KIT CARSON: BAPTISMAL CERTIFICATE

In this Parish of Taos (New Mexico) on the 28th day of January, A.D. 1842, I, the Parish Priest, D. Antonio Jose Martinez, previous to the Catechismal and necessary instructions, which convinced me that he is sufficiently instructed in the first and the final requirements of our religion--and his desire to join it--and as there existed a doubt as to whether or not he had been baptised, supposed to have been, as per the rites of the Anabaptists, which under oath he abjured, this adult, thirty two years of age, I exonerated him, annointed him with the Holy Oils, baptized "sub conditione", solemnly annointed him with the Holy Chrism, giving him the name of Christobal (Christopher) the same name he had before, from his first baptism, under the above mentioned rite--furthermore, this last baptism performed by me was made under the Adult Rites, and in accordance with the Roman Rites...said adult is a native of the state of Missouri, United States of America, but it is believed that since the age of fourteen years, has lived in this part of the country and the Plaza of Our Lady of Guadalupe, in this Parish, where he has exercised the occupation or worked as a Trapper, in the northern part.

He said his parents were Lindsey Carson and Rebecca Roberson, legitimately married; sponsors during (baptismal ceremony) were Louis Lee and Maria de la Cruz Padilla, neighbors of said Plaza of our Lady of Guadalupe, whom I advised of their obligation and spiritual relationship.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I hereby sign this:

ANTONIO JOSE MARTINEZ

MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE

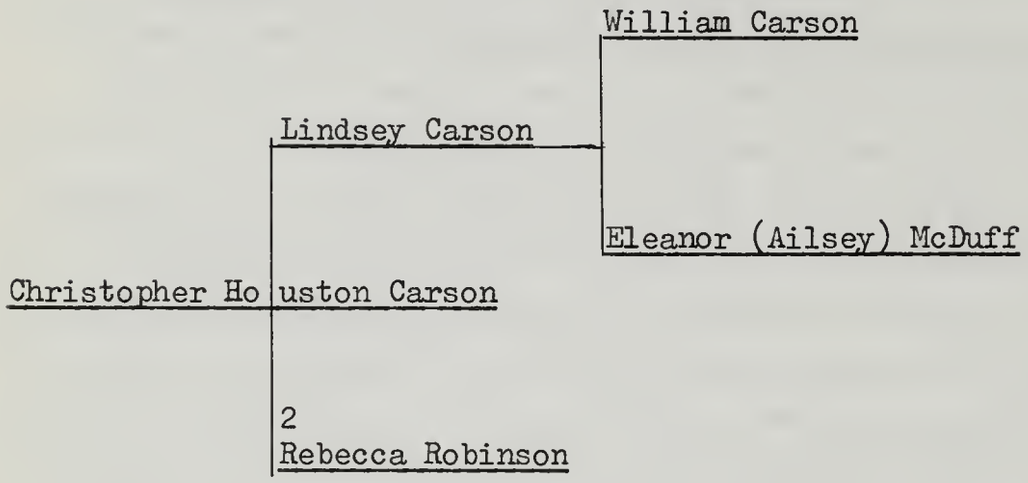
Bans were announced in the parish in my charge, for three days (or times) INTER MISARUM ELUMINIA, on January 29th, and on February 2nd, and 8th, of the present year--and there being no impediment announced, I married them IN FACIE, ECCE serving as witnesses George Bent and Maria de la Cruz Padilla, and other witnesses present: Juan Manuel Antonio Lopez and Nicolas Duran, neighbors of the Plaza of Our Lady of Guadalupe (in Taos, New Mexico) and others who were present. CHART PROVING KIT CARSON WAS NOT DESCENDED
FROM DANIEL BOONE



Honorable Probate Judge,
Pueblo County Colorado THOMAS O. BOGGS

Executor and administrator of the Estate, Christopher Carson, deceased. Report to this Honorable Court. That Mrs. Carson died on the 27th day of April 1868, and Christopher Carson on the 28th of May, 1868. They left seven children as follows:

Julian Carson	born October 1st 1852
Teresina Carson	born June 23rd 1855
Christobal Carson	born June 13 1858
Charles Carson	born August 2 1861
Rebecca Carson	born April 13 1864
Estifanita Carson	born December 23 1866
Josafita Carson	born April 13 1868

These children are all alive at this date. William Carson has been under the care of General W. T. Sherman for several years and is now of age. Teresina was married to D. Allen in 1871 and is not now under the care of the undersigned. These children now under my care are all healthy, except the youngest who requires constant medical attendance. The house and lands in Taos cannot be sold for money, and would bring a small sum in trade. Mrs. Carson has a right to lands on the Las Animas Grant which claim is in the hands of Bradford Chilcott and Macdonald, and is in process of prosecution. Teresina when she married went to live on a claim, which her Father has some equity to through Charles L. Rite. Since then Mrs. Rite has quit claimed this claim to her or her husband and which I understand they have sold for $2000.

I am informed that Christopher Carson does not wish to be under my care any longer. The means left by General Carson were inadequate to the rearing of so large a family, and the same is now all exhausted, while several of the children are yet in a helpless condition. Still as General Carson was my friend I intend to bring them up until they are of age at my own charges the same as my own family, but I cannot give the boys money, as a matter of right. It is my judgment and opinion that the boys should be set to work as soon as they are able to do so.

Yours respectfully

Thomas O. Boggs

Rumalda[8]Bent, b. 6 months after 1-19-1847 (Family statement), d. 3-27-1925 at Wileyville*, m. 11-3-1865 Charles Louis Ritz, a native of Hesse-Darmstadt in Germany. To the United States in 1852; to Taos 1853. Served with Army till 1858. To Boggsville, Bent County, Colorado 1866 (Hurd) (From obit. in Las Animas Leader 10-18-1873. C. L. Ritz d. 10-13-1873 ae 37)

In the Bent Bible in Santa Fe there is this entry: "Charles Louis Ri---y Ramo--- Bent--- el dia 3 de Noviembre 18--." Other notes of this marriage give date as 1865. All the marriage records have been carefully erased from the Bent Bible in Denver. See App. #9.

The family record that gives the death date also gives the birth date as 10-7-1850. That is too long after the death of Charles Bent for her to have been his daughter as the family claims.

Jack K. Boyer writes, after a search of the Catholic Church records of Taos: "I did find the marriage record of Charles Ritc (or "e" -- cannot tell which from the handwriting) to Roamulda Bent. The record states that on 4 November 1865 Charles Ritc, son of Juan Ritc and

* No such place name found, but there is a Wiley, Colorado not far from location of Bent Fort.

Margarita Ritc, married Romaulda Bent, daughter of Ignacia Bent. Both parties were residents of Taos and the marriage was witnessed by Scheurick (no first name) and Fernando Maxwell."

We have adopted the above spelling of Charles Louis Ritz. Mr. Roy R. Zehna of Denver thinks it might have been Rietz which was the way his mother pronounced it. "As the Spanish language has no 'z' and they were in a predominantly Spanish community, that may account for the spelling 'Ritc'."

C. W. Hurd in his recent book "Boggsville" said "Mrs. Rite was a sister to Mrs. Boggs." (If he meant Mrs. T. O. Boggs, she could have been a posthumous half sister as stated above." In J. W. Prowers account book for his store in Las Animas there are three variations: C. L. Rites, C. L. Ritc, and C. L. Rite. A Pueblo Sunday Paper of October 1956 says "in 1866 C. L. Rite helped T. O. Boggs build a house." T. O. Boggs uses the form "Ritc". (McCurdy Scrap Book) When the school district was formed at Boggsville in 1870, Ritz was made Secretary. (Colo. State Hist. Soc. Index) He was a business partner of Aloys Scheurich; also Justice of Peace. Children:

There is great disparity between the listings of the William Bent children, but as the first wife died in 1847 at the birth of a child, I have chosen this order since it seems to fit best. Children-five:

Mary[8] Bent (also given as Mary E. Was she the person later known as "Mollie"?) b. 1-22-1838 (Grinnell says ca 1836) at Bent's Fort, Colorado, d. 5-6-1878 near Las Animas, Bent County, Colorado. (Baskin, Hist. of the Arkansas Valley) Her Indian name was "Kiazesa".

Prowers 9-28-1871.

Mary spent some of her girlhood in the household of Colonel Albert G. Boone who came to Fort Lyon in August of 1862. (Baskin--Hist. Arkansas Valley) She was also with Mrs. Carr in St. Louis for a time.

Children--possible:

The Bent Bible in Santa Fe has no regular record, only occasional notations here and there, badly stained. Among these are the following:

Rumalda nacio 7 Octubre 1850

Elfego Bent se murio el dea 9 de Diciembre nueve a la 6 de la Manana en el ano de 1865 en Taos.

Salio Elfego Bent para de Estados Unidas el de 16 Mayo 1847.

Llego Elfego Bent de Estados Unidas en el 4 de Augosto 1854.

On p. 406 of "Bent's Fort" by David Lavender, he says, "Elfego and Rumalda must be, by process of elimination, George Bent's children." How he gets around the fact that George died in 1847 and Rumalda was born in 1850 we do not know. Accepting this as an hypothesis from which to work we have what follows:

Elfego[8] Bent, b. -- d. 12-9-1865

Rumalda[8] Bent, b. 10-7-1850

(Garst, p. 131 gives Elfego and Rumalda as children of George)

Coll. v. 15 p. 51). Called "Blue" or "Green Bird" by the Indians. "Robert Bent d. 10-20-1841 ae 25 and was buried near Bent's Fort. George died not far from this date; also buried there." (Baskin--Hist. Arkansas Valley p. 828)

THE BOGGS FAMILY

The basis of the Boggs record is the medley of Boggs material in the Library of the Colorado State Historical Society in Denver, Colorado to which has been added everything that could be found elsewhere.

Mr. Warren L. Boggs of Sacramento, California, has done everything in his power to be of help in this connection and various other persons have made contributions.

Lilburn W. Boggs (Billon--Annals of St. Louis, gives his middle name as Wycliff, as does Warren L. Boggs, family genealogist) Lilburn William Boggs used by San Francisco Historical Society. The State Historical Society of Missouri at Columbia quotes from a letter they had from the California State Library: "According to information furnished to the Library in 1906 by William M. Boggs, son of L. W. Boggs, the full name of the father was Lilburn William Boggs."

He was the eldest son of John M. Boggs and Martha or Myra Oliver of the eastern shore of Maryland. They went to Kentucky where they died young. On a muster roll of Captain Sarshall Cooper, April 1812 were Lindsey Carson, Joseph and David Boggs. Also mentioned is Thomas L. Boggs, brother of Lilburn.

Lilburn Wycliff Boggs, b. 1-14-1798 Lexington, Kentucky, (San Francisco Chronical, 6-4-1911) (also Carpenter--Hist. Mendocino and Lake Counties), b. 12-12-1785 (Boggs Record. Colorado Mag. v. 7 p. 46), b. 12-14-1792 (Hist. Napa and Lake Counties, California p. 373-86) same date given in son's record and in DAB.

d. 3-19-1861 on farm at Napa, California. (Biogs. and Obits. San Francisco Hist. Soc. 6:53) (Also two histories given above.)

d. 3-14-1860 (DAB) (The stone in the Toulacay Cemetery at Napa, California gives "b. 12-14-1796 Lexington, Kentucky, d. 3-14-1860 ae 63 years 3 months.")

Served in War of 1812 ae 16 under Governor Shelby, Captain Levi Todd Company Commander. Billon in Annals of St. Louis says L. W. Boggs went to St. Louis 1815/6. He became Governor of Missouri 1836-40. During Mormon disorders he was shot in the head in an attempted assassination but survived with unimpaired faculties.

In 1846 (Billon) (other records say 1849) with 8 children, he left with a wagon train guided by his son William for California, settling in Sonoma where he soon became Alcalde of California. m. 1st Juliannah[7] Bent, (see p. 95), m. 2nd 7-29-1823, Greenup County, Kentucky. (Billon--Annals of St. Louis) Panthea Grant Boone, b. 9-20-1801 Kentucky, d. 9-23-1880 Napa, California, daughter Jesse Bryan Boone and Chloe Van Bibber. (See Boonerecord). (From two histories given above and same p. Biogs. and Obits.)

Children of L. W.[7] Boggs and Juliannah[7] Bent:

Children of L. W.[7] Boggs and Panthea Grant Boone:

Thomas Oliver[8] Boggs, b. 8-22-1824 (on) Neosha (River), Indian Territory among the Osage Indians (Harmony Mission.) "Lived with my uncle Albert G. Boone at Independence, Missouri. I married in 1846." (From personal reminiscences PE 30 Bancroft Library.)

The Boggs record gives birth date as 8-21-1824.

Billon--Annals of St. Louis, gives 8-22-1824.

Listed as Colorado Pioneer of 1836 (Rocky Mountain News, 4-12-1870, p. 1 c. 3) "Mrs. Kit Carson died April the 27th, 1868. She was the aunt of my wife. Kit Carson died 5-23-1868. He left seven living children, 3 boys and 4 girls, six of them living April 28, 1885. He left his family in almost destitute circumstances and had it not been for Thomas O. Boggs, their friend and protector, they would have been thrown upon the cold charity of this uncharitable world. The youngest daughter is still with me. (1885)" (Personal Reminiscences.)

His Indian name was Wohk-po-hum or "White Horse." (Grinnell)

He went to California 1846- Was in Sonora and Napa Valley until 1851. Had some claim to the Vigil land grant in Colorado through his wife. (Colorado Magazine v. 7 p. 153 on)

Founded Boggsville, about 2 miles from Las Animas, Colorado. (Diary of William M. Boggs, his brother.)

In the diary of P. G. Scott in the Colorado State Historical Society in Denver, he says he came to Boggsville 9-1-1871 "under contract to teach school." Among his pupils he mentions the Kit Carson children, the Prowers, the Moores, etc. The name of T. O. Boggs appears in the J. W. Prowers account book in Las Animas 6-29-1869.

Boggs was a representative in the State Legislature from Bent County. (Rocky Mountain News 1-3-1871 p. 1 c. 4)

An interesting note: "Awards made to claimants under St. Vrain Grant, Pueblo Land Office: Estafana Hicklin, Rumalda Luna Boggs. Denied, Ramolda Rite, heirs of Alfred Bent." (Rocky Mountain News 2-28-1874 p. 4 c. 5)

Boggs said: "I was married in Taos in 1846." (Sabin v. 2 p. 800).

His wife was Rumalda Luna, step-daughter of Charles Bent, b. 1-6-1831 (Boyer). The family usually spell it Romalda in these days. Teresina Bent Scheurich is supposed to have said: "Mr. Tom Boggs who had married my cousin Rumalda Luna, who was the daughter of my aunt, Mrs. Charles Bent by her first marriage." (Sabin v. 2 p. 633). Either she was misquoted or her mind was not clear at the time, as she was herself the daughter of Mrs. Charles Bent and Rumalda was her half-sister.

We are going into all this detail because there have been many conflicting stories about these women named Rumalda and we are trying to get at the truth.

Cason, p. 29, mentions Rumalda Boggs being present at Charles Bent's murder January 1847 and also says, p. 34, that she was his stepdaughter. Lavender says, p. 250, "Tom Boggs married Rumalda Luna, Charles Bent's stepdaughter, ae 14."

T. O. Boggs died 9-29-1894 at Clayton, New Mexico, ae 70, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. I. Burch. (C. W. Hurd, "Boggsville" p. 6). He had also lived at Springer, New Mexico and is said to have been buried there. Another account says he and his wife were both buried at Las Animas, Colorado. The truth is that all the old graves in both places have disappeared as well as any records of burials.

Rumalda Luna Boggs is said to have died 1-13-1906/7.

Children:

A note made in California says he had three boys, one of whom was named Lilburn, and 2 girls. A granddaughter says he had two children,

Charles and a daughter Minnie Boone Boggs, born 25 years after the birth of Charles. This would make her ae 11 at marriage. No member of the family can be found who will give any exact data. See App. #10 We accept:

LINE OF SAMUEL CARSON, SUPPOSED TO BE BROTHER OF ORIGINAL WILLIAM AND MOSES

The bulk of the records of the Line of Samuel were supplied by Lester F. Phillis of McPherson, Kansas.

Mr. F. Tom Carson kindly gave us permission to copy from his book "Carson Family Genealogy" anything that would fit into this record. This gave us the record of James Carson and Ataline Cooke and various other items.

Some additions were made from the paper on "Moses and William Carson" by Mennie A. Rietz with a few other bits from the Genealogy Department of the Denver Public Library.

Bernice Blackwelder sent us Bible records and Frances Carson Hubert sent us the record of her family. See App. # 12.

#6 (From letter from F. T. Cheetham, Taos, New Mexico, to Willis D. McPherson, Mono Lake, California, dated June 23, 1926.)

Captain James Hobbs in his book entitled Wild Life in the Far West, at pages 447-8 tells of finding the grave of Kit Carson's daughter at Mono Lake California. He says that her mother was a Blackfoot Indian called Pine Leaf. That the girl was kept at Bent's Fort for a time and at sixteen she married a man named George Stilts and moved to California where she died. That he afterwards located the spot where she was buried and hired a man to erect a fence around the grave. He says that she was a beautiful girl and so do the people here, who knew her. It seemed to be a law of nature that the half-caste girls resembled the father and the boys the mother.

(From letter from Edwin L. Sabin, Route 1, Hemet, California, to Mr. Francis T. Cheetham, Taos, New Mexico, dated October 11, 1933.)

Evidently we are up against it in the matter of the girl Adaline's alleged marriage. Carson was living over at the Rayado until the close of 1853, when he became Indian Agent at Taos. If he could have side-stepped Padre Martinez (in consequence of the affair of '47 when Charles Bent and others were killed) he might have done so. His allegiance to the Catholic church was on the wane, too. And the girl might have lit out. But seems to me that had there been something phoney in her relations with Lewis Simmons, with whom she was co-habiting in California in 1853, either Kit or his brother Lindsey (who wrote to Kit of her presence in California) would have killed Simmons. Kit was in California himself in 1853; the marriage might have been put through then and there. Charley Carson, Kit's only surviving child, writes me that Adaline married Louis (Lewis) Simmons, and died without issue, in California. I am trying to run down that Mono Lake business myself.

(From a letter dated October 6, 1933 from Edwin L. Sabin to Mr. Francis T. Cheetham of Taos, New Mexico)

"Adaline Carson the breed girl died at Mono Lake, California about 1860, as the wife of one George Stilts, according to a newspaper item of 1930 which refers to a "monument" being erected to her at the Lake. But she lived in California in the middle fifties as the consort of one Lewis Simmons. I cannot locate the monument. Since Mrs. Scheurich and Charley Carson coincide in saying that she married Simmons in New Mexico about 1852 and went to California with him, where she certainly lived in 1853 by a reference in a letter to Kit from his younger brother Lindsey of 1854 date, the Stilts business is still subject to certification."

History of Adaline Carson Stilts's
Monument on the grounds of Mono Inn,
Mono Lake, California.

On August 3rd 1930, Mark Twain day Regatta was held at Mono Inn, Mono Lake, California, under the auspices and management of Mrs. Venita Reche McPherson, owner and manager of Mono Inn. This was the second year for this event.

Through Mr. Roy Carson of Carson Camp Resort, on Silver Lake in Mono County, California, Mrs. McPherson learned that the old grave on the Mono Inn property, which lies on the shores of Mono Lake, was the grave of Adaline Carson Stilts, known as "Prairie Flower", who was the daughter of the famous Kit Carson.

Mr. Roy Carson (who is now dead) said, "An attorney by the name of Mr. Cheetham, bought a cabin in New Mexico, that had belonged to Kit Carson. In this cabin he found a diary of Kit Carson's in which there was a description given of Adaline "Prairie Flower's" grave, that was on the Wilson Homestead at Mono Lake, California, which is the property, Mrs. McPherson, that you now own and call Mono Inn." Kit Carson gave such an excellent description of the grave, and its surroundings, that it was very easily found by Mr. Cheetham, when he made a trip to Mono Lake and secured the help of Roy Carson to locate the grave.

Mr. Carson also said that in the diary it told that Kit Carson's wife was of the Black Foot Tribe of Indians. That Carson was taken ill in a camp, some forty miles away from their home, and when his wife heard of his illness, she rode on horse back all that distance to see him. On her arrival at the camp she was taken ill and died, after giving birth to a baby girl. This was in 1839. The baby was named Adaline "Prairie Flower" Carson. Kit Carson took his baby back to civilization in the Middle West, and placed Adaline in a convent. She grew up to be a very nice young lady and married a white man by the name of Stilts.

There was a big gold excitement at Mono Diggings, Mono Lake, California about 1848, and Mr. and Mrs. Stilts came to California with a family by the name of Wilson. The Wilsons took up a homestead of 160 acres on the shores of Mono Lake. This property is now owned by Mrs. Venita Reche McPherson and known as Mono Inn.

Adaline Carson Stilts was taken sick while living at Mono Diggings, which was just seven miles from Mono Lake, and was brought to the Wilson's home, where she passed away, and was buried on the Wilson property on the shores of Mono Lake.

When the McPhersons bought the property in 1922, and Mr. Roy Carson told them about the Carson girl's grave, Mrs. McPherson decided that she would erect a monument over the grave, which she did in 1930 and had it unveiled by the noted actor Mr. Henry B. Walthall, who was living at the time in his summer home on June Lake, fifteen miles south of Mono Lake, California. The unveiling of the monument took place on The Mark Twain Day Regatta held August 3rd 1930, on the grounds of Mono Inn.

Two weeks before the celebration, the son of Mr. Wilson appeared at Mono Inn. He lived at San Jose. He was a very old man, and he made the trip to Mono Lake to see their old homestead again. Mrs. McPherson questioned him about the Carson girl's grave, and the story about her birth, also asked about the Stilts coming to California with his parents. He said every word of it was true, he had heard his folks tell about it many times. Mrs. McPherson asked Mr. Wilson if he would stay, or come back, and unveil the monument, and he said, "No, I am an old man and I have made this trip over here to see our old place for the last time, I wouldn't feel equal to coming over here again. I am very happy to have Henry B. Walthall unveil the monument. I admire him very much."

The inscription on the monument reads:

I, Christopher Carson, a resident of Pueblo County, Colorado Territory, knowing the uncertainty of life, and being now of sound mind, do make this, my last Will and Testament.

TO WIT:

First. It is my will that of my cattle numbering from one hundred to two hundred head, such only, shall be sold from time to time, as may be necessary for the support of my children; the balance to be retained, with the increase, for the benefit of my children.

Signed this 15th day of May, One Thousand eight hundred and sixty eight, the presence of:

I. (or J.) A. Fitzgerald
H.R. Tilton

S/ C. Carson

Recorded Oct. 6, 1868, M. G. Bradford, Probate Judge.
(From Kit Carson Home & Museum, Taos, New Mexico. Major Jack K. Boyer in charge.)

#8 A note in the Hurd scrapbook states that Mrs. Kit Carson, who was a Jaramillo, had a brother Luciano.

#9 Mr. C. W. Hurd believes that Charles Bent did have a posthumous daughter who married Charles Louis Ritz. He cannot understand the record in the Bent Bible that gives Rumalda's birth date as 1850.

#10 Mr. Hurd says the statement about the two Boggs children can't be correct. He is certain Boggs had two children, but that there was no gap of 25 years between them.

#11 Mr. C. W. Hurd believes the list of Minnie Boggs children to be correct.

#12 The compiler is not responsible for the discrepancies in the dates in the opening pages of SAMUEL. She has tried to find material in the Denver Public Library that would enable her to harmonize them but without success.

#13 In January of 1961, Dr. Harry G. McGavran of Quincy, Illinois sent us the following:
In a transcript of title of the Maxwell Land Grant published by Rand and McNally and Company Printers in 1881, there are two suits by the Bent family, or rather should I say decrees by the courts, involving the Bent family that will, I believe, depict rather correctly the children of Charles Bent.
A decree dated September 1865, lists Charles Bent's children as Alfred Bent, Estefana Hicklin (husband-Alexander) and Teresina Bent (alias-Teresa T. Bent - Husband - Aloys Scheurick). On page 53 of this publication I would like to take this, verbatim for you to use in whatever way you see fit: "In consideration whereof, therefore, it is ordered, that judge, and decreed by the court, that the said complainants, Alfred Bent, Estefana Bent Hicklin, and Teresina, otherwise Teresa T. Bent, and hereby are, declared to be the natural son and daughters of the said Charles Bent, in the said bill mentioned, by him begotten upon and conceived and born of Ignacia Jaramillo, within the territory of New Mexico, formally at the department of the Province of New Mexico; and at the time the said Alfred, Estefana, and Teresina were begotten and conceived, no lawful impediment existed to prevent the said Charles Bent and Ignacia Jaramillo from in do form of law solemnising a contract of marriage the one with the other; that as such natural children, the said Alfred, Estefana, and Teresina in the absence of any child or heir born in wedlock to the said Charles Bent become and were at the time of his decease the true and lawful heirs of his body..."

So you can see if one can trust this court document of 1865, there were no legal or lawfully born children of Charles Bent, but these natural children are described.

On page 104 of the same volume in another decree regarding the Bent suit against the Maxwell Land Grant Company, I note this additional information: Apparently, Alfred Bent had married a woman whose name was Guadalupe. In this decree as administratrix of the estate of Alfred Bent, deceased she was now the wife of George Thompson. In this decree it mentions the children of Alfred Bent as Charles Bent, Juliana Bent, and Alberto Silas Bent. This decree was dated 1881, the former in 1865. One would infer from this that Alfred Bent had passed away during the intervening years and had left the three mentioned children.

When I spoke of the lack of this marriage to the State Archivist of the state of New Mexico, it was pointed out to me that after all Father Martinez was the chief Catholic prelate in Taos, and was considered the main person behind the Indian uprising that ostensibly was started to get rid of all non-Spanish persons in the Taos area. Consequently, any records that antedate Charles Bent's death could have been falsified or destroyed.

#14 A note in the Las Animas Leader 11-1-1875 says "Judge Moore is taking his daughter Ada to Topeka (Kans) to school."

#15 Bernice Blackwelder, after studying her own notes and memories as well as the manuscript writes: "I do not think the date of 1839 is correct for Adaline's birth. Kit's sister Mary said she was school age when she came to live with her in Missouri. She went to California in 1848 and surely was not married at 10. I have always thought "Wanibe" was Arapahoe. Surely not Blackfoot as they were bitter enemies of the trappers. The Arapahoes were related to the Blackfeet and cast them off because they (evidently she means the Arapahoes) were friendly to the white men. Mrs. Rubey also stated that Adaline was not placed in a convent but attended school at the Female Seminary at Fayette, Mo. I taught three years at Central College in Fayette and have not been able to find any record there but that does not mean she did not go to school there".

The dates do seem to be questionable but it is doubtful if anything more definite can be learned now. Compiler

#16 On p. 260 of her book "GREAT WESTERNER: THE STORY OF KIT CARSON" published by Caxton in February, 1962, Mrs. Blackwelder states that Adaline married George Stilts of Missouri in 1850.

PLACE INDEX

An effort has been made to identify particularly all place names connected with the early pioneering days of Carson-Bent-Boggs families. (Such care seemed unnecessary in regard to later generations.) The compiler is not responsible for the way in which some locations are given but has tried to harmonize them with the atlas, often without success for various reasons.
